

THEM LIGHTS

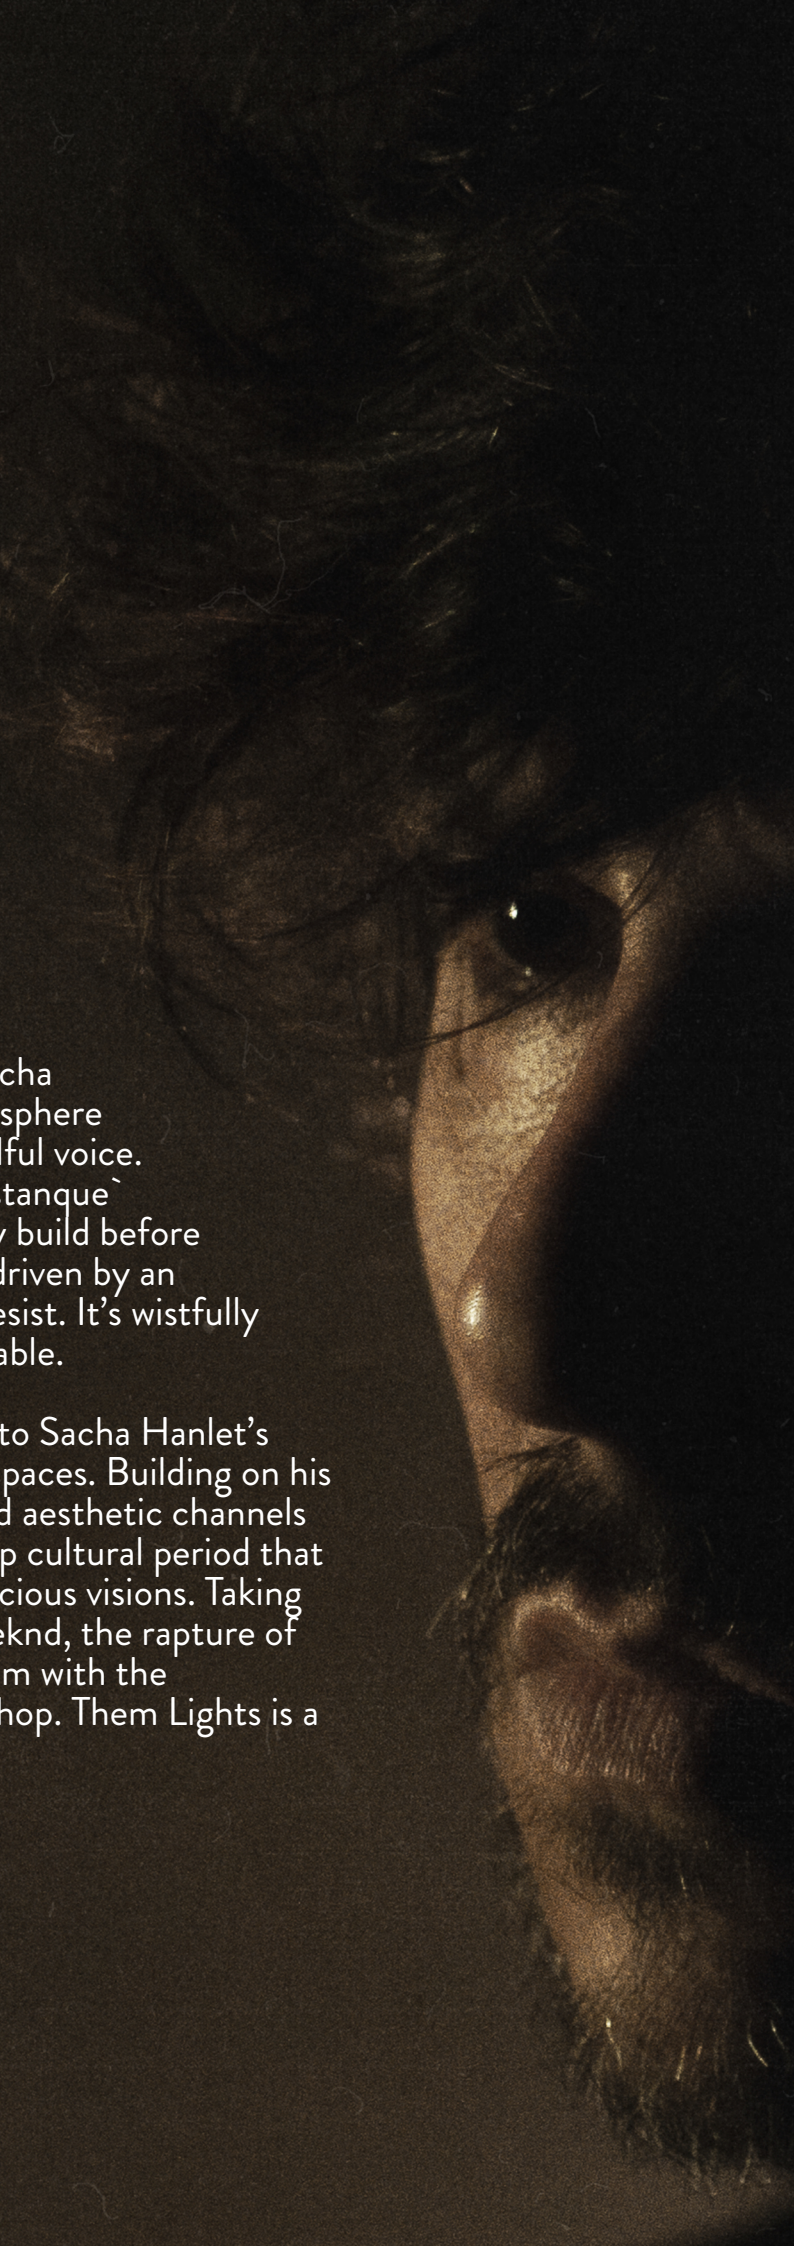

BIOGRAPHY

Enter the kaleidoscopic mind of Sacha Hanlet, singer, songwriter and record-producer based in Luxembourg.

While some listeners know the musician as drummer from the instrumental math-rock outfit MUTINY ON THE BOUNTY, known for their kinetic display of energy and extensive touring across Europe, Asia and North America, THEM LIGHTS transcends the boundaries of live instrumentation oscillating between Blade Runner-arpeggios, dark electronica and a mainstream sensibility.

With his confident production style, Sacha Hanlet excels at building vibe and atmosphere always highlighting the range of his soulful voice. Take for starters the falsetto-driven 'Estanque' where eastern-tinged electronics slowly build before morphing into a mind-bending chorus driven by an indelible hookline that proves hard to resist. It's wistfully romantic, visceral and instantly pleasurable.

The visual aspect of this project speaks to Sacha Hanlet's interest in exploring different creative spaces. Building on his expertise as a lighting designer, this bold aesthetic channels the haunted reveries of the 80's – a pop cultural period that opens up dream landscapes and unconscious visions. Taking cues from the spectral RnB of The Weeknd, the rapture of Thriller-period MJ and synthesizing them with the trailblazing works of contemporary hip hop. Them Lights is a mysterious pop enigma in its own right.

FUTURE

Following his debut show in November 2022 and a series of initial performances in Europe, Sacha Hanlet is actively in the process of laying the groundwork for the next phase. This includes assembling a dedicated team encompassing management, booking, and public relations for Them Lights.

Having released his debut EP, mixed and mastered by Farzad Rahnavard and Thomas Petermann (CRO, Mike Singer, KC Rebell), Sacha is now eagerly poised to embark on the next exciting phases which include hitting the road for tours and launching a comprehensive promotional campaign.

PRESS & QUOTES

“The EP showcases the artist’s signature style, characterized by intricate melodies, textural soundscapes, and emotive vocals. It reflects years of fine-tuning, with tracks that maintain a balance between danceable rhythms and a mystical, introspective feel.” Reeperbahn Festival

“Dark and moody pulsating electronica that is an entrancing portrait of self reflection” Delano Magazine

“Redefining futuristic pop with refreshing beats and bass” RTL Today

“Outstanding and inspirational” Farzad Rahnavard
